

There's a storm raging and you lose power for several days.

You're cold...

...your cell phone battery is almost dead...

...and you could really use something warm to eat and drink.

Where can you go?

Find the shelter or warming center nearest you! For more information, contact your town office or dial 211.

Community Shelters & Warming Centers in Knox County

Does your community operate a shelter or warming center?

Knox County Emergency Management Agency
30 Park Street
Knoxville, TN 37603
202.966.1100
www.knoxcountypa.gov/ema

Community-Rest Shelter / Warming Center Locations by Municipality

Please note that our listings are subject to changes based on need and/or availability of volunteers to staff the shelters. Contact your town for updated hours of operation.

Aptonia

Aptonia Fire Station
2675 Seward Road, Aptonia

Carlebo

Carlebo Congregational Church
27 Elm Street, Carlebo
We depend on volunteer availability

Coaling

Evans Office
39 Elm Road, Coaling
See Website

Frostville

Wade Community Center
11 Main Street, Frostville

Hope

Hope Center Fire Station
475 Camden Road, Hope

Redland

South School
38 Broadway, Redland
&

Redland City Hall
126 Weaver Street, Redland
Open during regular business hrs

&
Redland Public Library
87 Union Street, Redland
Open during regular business hrs

&
Pleasant Community Center
124 East Street, Redland
Open during regular business hrs

Redport

Carlebo Hills Regional High School
27 Arthur Drive, Redport

Northway

Evans Hall
15 School Street, Towns Harbor
&
Northway School
11 Main Street, Towns Harbor

South Thompson

Public Library
8 Dublin Road, So. Thompson
7:00am – 2:00pm, See Website
&

Spruce Road Community Church
11 Village Hill, Spruce Road
7:00am – 2:00pm, See Website

Thompson

Wade Hall
174 Main Street, Thompson
Can be open on non-office hrs on odd, including overnight hrs

Town

Dixie Elementary School
800 West Highway, Town
&

Town Office / Fire Station
507 Center Road, Town
7:00am – 4:00pm, See Website

See the page for more locations...